Armed Robbery [Previously Released] – On May 2 at 6:53PM, officers responded to Kyle Wilson Elementary School located at 5710 Liberty Hill Ct. in Woodbridge (22193) to investigate a robbery. The investigation revealed the victim, a 47-year-old woman, was walking to her vehicle in the parking lot when she was approached by an unknown man armed with a knife. During the encounter, the suspect pushed the victim before getting into her vehicle and attempting to drive away. When the victim refused to let the suspect leave, the suspect grabbed the victim's backpack and fled on foot. The victim then immediately contacted the police. While investigating, officers determined shortly before the incident, the suspect attempted to gain entry into the victim's vehicle and when he was not successful, he waited behind another vehicle for the victim to approach. No injuries were reported. A police K-9 and Fairfax County police helicopter searched for the suspect who was not located.

Incidents

Fatal Crash Investigation – On September 23 at 2:45AM, crash investigators responded to the 3500 block of Veronica Ln. in Woodbridge (22192) to investigate a single vehicle crash. The investigation revealed the driver of a 2014 Nissan Altima was traveling southbound on Smoketown Rd. at a high rate of speed when the driver lost control of the vehicle, crossed into the northbound lanes, and left the roadway before striking multiple trees and catching fire. The driver of the vehicle was not wearing a seatbelt and was pronounced deceased at the scene. No additional vehicles were involved in the crash. Speed is a factor in the crash. The investigation continues.

Identified:

The driver of the Nissan Altima was identified as Justin Whitfield BRANDON, 36, of Woodbridge

Arrests

Threats of Violence Investigation – On September 24, at 10:12AM, officers responded to Park Valley Church located at 4500 Waverly Farm Dr in Haymarket (20169) to investigate a possible threat of violence. The investigation revealed Fairfax County police contacted Prince William County police after their agency received information from police in Anne Arundel County, Maryland regarding a citizen residing in Laurel who reported recent suspicious and concerning online postings on Instagram from an individual later identified as the accused. In the postings, vague threats of violence were made, some of which included images of a location later determined to be Park Valley Church in Haymarket (Prince William County). Through the swift investigation lead by Anne Arundel police, their officers were able to determine a potential residence for the accused in Falls Church and immediately contacted Fairfax County police concerning the postings. When Fairfax County police responded to the home, the accused was not located. Additional information regarding a vehicle was also obtained through the joint investigation and contact was made with Prince William County police to check the church property. An off-duty, uniformed Prince William County police officer working a detail assignment at the church located the unoccupied vehicle belonging to the accused in the parking lot. At around the same time, staff at the church were monitoring a suspicious person who was determined to be the accused who was on the premises. The off-duty officer and church staff coordinated and detained the accused near the entrance without incident. The accused apparently entered the building through a separate door and had been inside the location prior to being stopped. Church services were going on at the time, no injuries were reported. The accused was found to be in possession of a loaded handgun along with an additional magazine, folding knife, and a folding “credit card” style knife. The accused was determined to have a concealed weapon permit, and the firearm was not reported stolen. Following the investigation, the accused, identified as Rui JIANG, was arrested. Additionally, an Emergency Substantial Risk Order (ESRO) and a search warrant for the residence in Falls Church were obtained. Related documents and electronic items were seized, no additional firearms were located. Anyone who may have had previous contact with the accused leading up to this incident is asked to contact Prince William County police at 703-792-7000.

Arrested on September 24:

Rui JIANG, 35, of 5601 Seminary Rd, #318, in Falls Church

Charged with threats of bodily harm and carrying dangerous weapon to place of religious worship

Court Date: Pending | Bond: Held WITHOUT Bond
